Property Description

This custom built home with a modern coastal design enjoys jaw-dropping sunsets & expansive views of the ocean, coastline, bay & inland. With soaring ceilings, lots of windows (more than forty feet in the living room alone), and disappearing sliders, the interior is flooded with natural light. Hardwood & custom-poured epoxy floors throughout, the gourmet Chef's kitchen features quartz counters, custom cabinets & includes a gorgeous ocean blue ZLINE six burner gas stove with convection oven to match the cabinets. The three generously sized outdoor living areas are perfect for entertaining and enjoying the spectacular San Diego weather, especially on the rooftop sun deck. The 1st floor has a hallway door with lock to separate the rest of the house from the first floor Primary Bedroom, spa-like bathroom and large front patio for Airbnb bookings. This custom built luxury home has a very desirable location close to Sunset Cliffs, beaches, downtown, Little Italy, Petco, outdoor concerts and performances at the Shell, San Diego Zoo, SeaWorld, Mission Valley, La Jolla and so much more. Take a short walk down Newport Avenue and enjoy the shops, restaurants, OB Farmer's Market, Pier and of course, the beach!
