Property Description

Historical Whittier at its best! This lovely 1911 custom craftsman was completely renovated in 2021 with all of the special updates of a new home and more! Centrally located to uptown Whittier, this an ideal home you don't want to miss! Surrounded with plenty of trees and beautiful landscaping, the front porch with a relaxing sitting area welcomes you home. As you enter through the front door into the large living and dining room, the stunning wide plank engineered walnut hardwood floors, original wood burning fireplace and beautiful custom trim work capture your eyes. Flooded with natural light from the abundance of windows, the living room is open to the dining room, providing a comfortable, open social entertaining space. The kitchen features quartz countertops, stainless steel appliances, designer tile backsplash, a breakfast nook with built in seating and storage, ending with direct access to your stunning backyard deck!! The first floor also boasts two bedrooms joined by a gorgeous Jack and Jill bathroom. Upstairs offers two more bedrooms with hardwood flooring. The primary bedroom is highlighted with a quaint reading nook with a custom stained glass window, built in wall safe and a dream closet with plenty of storage. Down the hall is the full bathroom with a large hydraulic medicine cabinet and a towel warmer. The additional bedroom has a fantastic view of the backyard, as well as plenty of natural light. A fully finished basement contains another large bathroom with vanity and custom shower; a laundry area and a generous open space that can be whatever your heart desires. As you step into your new backyard you are greeted by a large deck which leads to the beautiful newly landscaped yard complete with new grass. That's not all: this home boasts a FULL STUDIO APARTMENT above the 2-car detached garage with independent access and space for RV/trailer parking. No detail has been overlooked on 6009 Painter Avenue—come see this gorgeous home before it's gone!!!
